“ Audrey was a great friend and listener. When she needed something she wouldn't hesitate to ask, but she did so always reciprocating the same. I always enjoyed being in her company and listening to her talk. Her piano talent was note 🎵 worthy too! Great friend Audrey was, and greatly missed

“ Audrey was one of most generous people I have ever known. Throughout her life she gave away most of her possessions, never expecting anything in return. I was present when a hospital bed was brought in for her comfort in her last days. As the delivery man left she said "Wait, let me give him a tip!" Audrey was never one to see a glass half empty; in spite of many misfortunes, she always looked to the future with hope. May she rest in peace as she reunites with her husband, sons, and parents.

“ One of my fondest childhood memories is of the three cousins, Norma Riemer Stemm, Ruth Stueckler Carson, and Audrey, each three months apart in age, growing up and sharing many good times at the beach and at the farm.

Later Audrey and I shared many lunches and get togethers. She always thought the best of everyone, was very loving and appreciative.

“ Audrey was the daughter of the oldest Neumann son, Alfred and I am the daughter of the youngest Neumann son, Howard. Their parents were from Germany and Hungary and worked very hard to make a life in America. Audrey and I and other Neumann cousins would get together for lunch in the past several years. She would talk about her grandchildren whom she was very proud. I will miss you Audrey and your unique laugh. God bless you ❤️
