“ I wanted to share one of my most recent memories with Chuck. During a recent call with Chuck (before he passed) he was telling me about him falling and hurting himself then he asked about an injury I had. I started off by telling him that I got ran over by a parked car. He got quiet and then said "Do Tell" Then I said "Well... it wasn't easy".... Chuck lost it. He broke into the greatest belly laugh, which made me laugh as well. Just like old times. I don't even know if I got through with the rest of my story. Man I'm gonna miss him,.

Chuck, I hope you are up there playing your guitar and having some great laughs with loved ones that passed before you. Love you.

“ I met Chuck in 1980 through his best buddy, Chris Haven. Chris said to me "You're gonna' love this guy, he lights up a room when he walks in". He was right. Chuck did light up a room when he walked in. Chuck was a very unique person and had the best deep, raspy voice ever. You'de never mistake that voice for anyone else's. I will always love and miss him.

Rest In Peace my dear friend "Charles Charming" <3
