“ Chuck Williamson was my oldest nephew. I spent many years as a teen babysitting he and the oldest three girls, in Portland, OR and we always had fun. He always had a smile and a great sense of humor—even as a kid! He will be missed !

“ Growing up with this tall handsome, smiling guy was an honor! It’s been years since we spoke, but his smile and laugh still ring in my ears! My last memory of him was going ice skating with him and friends while I was possibly at Samford! I know he was loved and will be missed!

“ There are too many memories for me to choose just one. Chuck was, and still is, dearly loved by his family and friends. To say that he’ll be missed doesn’t begin to describe this tremendous loss. He was one in a million.
