“ Daddy you left too soon. I miss everything about you and being able to call you when I had questions about cooking or decisions I needed help with because you always had the right answer. You were my everything and some days I don't know how I'm surviving without you. You brought so much joy and peace to my life and were my favorite person to be around. I hope if there is an afterlife that you at least get to be with Bubba. I love you more than I can express and will always miss you.

“ Uncle Chris left many great memories in my heart. If Chris was there a good time was sure to be had, it was who he was.

There was a time when he lived with us in south Florida. Every Friday afternoon (pay day) he would load up all Scott kids along with a few neighborhood kids in his Yellow car and off to the local 7/11 we would go. Once there he would announce “Get whatever you want”! Seriously!!

Every Friday afternoon week after week, and it didn’t take long as the word got out, the group of kids grew and grew. I can remember kids sitting in laps, arms and legs hanging out windows. I’m sure it was quite the sight!

During this time Uncle Chris was our favorite playmate in our swimming pool. He never got tired letting us climb up on his shoulders and back. He was much more fun than any diving board could have ever been.

I loved his boat rides and skiing off the dock at the river. Then we would gather around to enjoy the Fireworks he would always be apart of.

Yes, I was lucky enough to enjoy his famous grand breakfast while I lived in Birmingham as a teenager.

Another favorite memory was going to the Fair with Tim and Chris and Sharon. Tim and Chris won so many stuffed animals that we put them in giant plastic bags and drug them behind us on the ground.

I am very grateful for these memories!

I loved my Uncle Chris and the joy I experienced spending time with him.

To Jerri, Scottman and Felicia

I am sad for you loss and I hope reading this you find a little comfort on the wonderful memories I have thanks to your husband and Dad.

Love you all

“ *My brother, Chris, brought joy with him wherever he went. He loved life and loved celebrating it with family and friends.
An excellent cook and host - everyone who entered felt welcomed and at home in his house. He fed us all zestfully and with love.
We will miss him dearly and remember him always.
Rest In Peace, brother. I love you.*
