“ Although several years have passed since Clara and I visited, I have such good memories of her ebullient, bubbly personality and generosity. She was one sweet cousin and sad to learn of her passing.

“ I could write a book of many pages about my times with Clara. Some Good Some Bad, but we stuck together through all of it. I especially remember going to a sleep over at a HAUNTED house across the street from where Clara grew up. What a night. Screaming girls all night. I also enjoyed teaching Vacation Bible School with Clara at the small church just down the road from her house. Clara and I car pooled to Mobile and back to go to Hufstetters Business College after High School. I had recently been trying to reach out to find Clara with no response. It saddens me very much to have to catch up with her in this way. I will look you up again, my dear sweet friend, in Heaven. R.I.P. Our Angel. Love you to Heaven and back.
