To Dawn, In Loving Memory July 14, 2018

Finally - she's at the place she's always wanted to be

Finally - she has the warmth of love unconditionally

Finally - she's smiling wide and happy through and through

Finally - the BEST is hers and honesty that's true

Finally - she's broken chains of disappointing life

Finally - real Joy is hers - no longer weighed by strife

Finally - she's found someone whose love is without end

Finally - she has it all and riches beyond reason

Because

Finally - that mansion that was built for her alone is now where she is looking from - her blessed eternal home

And

Finally - I will let you go - deep sorrow in my eyes,

For God will take Great Care of You

As only God I know can do

We'll meet again Sweet Sister, by-and-by

Love, Dare

“ I knew Dawn to always have a heart of gold. I never saw her without a beautiful smile or a kind word. Her kindness and compassion for animals was always a quality that put her above others. She will be missed and I pray she will rest in peace.
