

Mrs. Deborah Lee Taylor

March 17, 1952 - September 1, 2021

Deborah (Debbie) Lee Lard Taylor, 69, of Foley, Alabama departed this life on September 1, 2021, after complications from COVID pneumonia. She was born on March 17, 1952, in Florence, Alabama. She was a Christian and loved The Lord. She retired from JC Penny and worked for UPS store in Fairhope, Alabama for several years.

Debbie enjoyed using her creative talents involving herself in theater projects and other community events. She loved decorating for weddings and showers. She also loved to work in her yard and with flowers. Debbie enjoyed her family. She loved dearly and was dearly loved. She was so giving always. Helping many throughout her life. She had a heart of gold.

Debbie is survived by her husband of 52 years, James F. Taylor; one daughter, Christina Pennington (Tinker Boyd); three brothers, Tom, Mike, and Jim; one sister, Laura. She is also survived by two grandchildren, Joshua Purser and Kaitlin Purser: four great-grandchildren, several nieces and nephews, and many special friends.

She is preceded in death by her father, William Thomas Lard and Mother, Lola Mae Lard.

A memorial service will be announced at a later date.

“ Debbie was our Visual Mgr at JCPenney in Florence AL when I managed the store in the 90's. One of the most supportive and creative people I ever worked with, and every associate in the store felt the same way. Always ready to laugh, especially when she helped the Male mgmt dress as ladies for a "fashion show". Lots of good memories with Debbie, so sorry for the family
