“ I have so many memories but the one that sticks out the most was when he took Robo James Matt and myself out on his boat and was pulling us around on the four person inter tube. He was trying to fling us off and I was the last one left on the float caught air and sent me up about 10 feet off the water for what seemed like forever. He stopped shortly after it was in the air he was so excited/happy that I was still on and it was just something cool. I took it as he was proud of me for still holding on and creating that great moment. Now everytime I do something I feel he was proud of I always remember that moment.
