“ Was devastated to hear about "Charlie". He was such a great guy. When we first met, he told me his name was Charles, and I asked him if I could call him Charlie, and he asked why and I told him, he looked more like a Charlie to me, and he laughed and said I could. Lots of great times, out taking pictures, going to Biloxi and hitting the forts in Pensacola, and not to mention taking him on a ghost hunt. Great memories that won't be forgotten! Nancy M.

“As kids we lived together.. we fought, we laughed, we cried.
We did not always show the love, that we had inside.
We shared our dreams and plans.. and some secrets too.
The memories that we shared, are what binds me now with you.

We grew to find we have a love.. that is still strong today.
It's a love shared by our family, that will never fade away.
You are my brother, not by choice, but by the nature of our birth,
I could not have chosen a better one.. you were the best on earth.

~Your big sis Rita~
