“ Mom , I love you and I miss you terribly so much. I miss our conversations we would had so offered. I miss your advice, your hugs and our laughs. There’s not a day that goes by I don’t think about you. I have cried a lot and I wish I could have another day with you. I would do everything differently. But I also know you’re not in no more pain. You’re my angel, my best friend and my mom. I’m so proud that you was my mom. I love you, mom

“ Mom ,I love you , I miss you everyday you since you have been gone. There hasn’t been a day I have thought about you and I have shed a lot of tears since then.
The day you left me was awful for me. I wish I had another chance or even another day to spend with you. I miss our conversations, your advice, and your hugs. I do know you aren’t in anymore pain and I know you are watching over me and everyone else. Mom I love you and I miss so much everyday. You’re my angel, my hero,my best friend and my mom. I love you mom 🌸💕🌸
