

Mrs. Gloria Joyce Johnson Lynam

September 24, 1931 - March 11, 2018

Gloria Joyce Johnson Lynam passed away at her Quail Creek home in Fairhope, Alabama on March 11, 2018. Born in Mobile, AL, she graduated from Murphy High School in 1949 and Huffstetler Business College in Mobile. Until she left to raise her family, she worked as a secretary at Merchants National Bank in Mobile. When her children were in school, she became a kindergarten teacher at the Emmanuel Baptist Church School and later worked in the pharmacology department of The University of South Alabama. Gloria was very involved in church activities throughout her life. She served as a Sunday School teacher, an active choir member, and a leader in various youth activities in her church for many years. After moving to Fairhope, she was an active member of the Fairhope United Methodist church, where she was a member of the choir, and involved in many church activities, as long as her health permitted. She enjoyed playing Bridge throughout her life and along with her husband Lawrence, enjoyed traveling extensively, especially with friends and family after their retirement.

She was preceded in death by her husband Frank Lawrence Lynam, parents Herbert and Ardella Johnson, her granddaughter Lindsey Marie Pearce, her sister Mary Eleanor Stafford, and her brother Captain Charles Edward Johnson. She is survived by her children Frank Lawrence (Larry) Lynam, Deborah Lynam Pearce, Kent Michael Lynam, her grandchildren Tobias Levi (Toby) Pearce, Morgan Pearce Comalander, Amanda Kathleen Pearce, six great-grandchildren, and her sister, Judy Caroline Klumpp.

Visitation for Gloria Lynam will be held Tuesday, March 13, 5:30 - 8:30 PM at Pine Rest Funeral Home in Magnolia Springs, Alabama. Her funeral service will be held March 14 at Pine Rest Funeral Home in Magnolia Springs, Alabama at 2PM and a visitation will be held at 1PM prior to the service. Burial will be at Pine Rest Memorial Park in Magnolia Springs, AL.
