“ I worked with Greg for years and had tremendous respect for him professionally. But we hunted together for years and that is where the real Greg would come out. Just sitting around the camp at Thomasville drinking coffee and shooting the bull. He sure loved his family and talked about them all the time. Oh the stories!!! I don't think Greg is resting in peace, he's scouting out the heavenlies with a new back and knees!! Wont have to sit so he can see who's walking in the door either!

“ Greg Andress was my friend. We worked together for many, many years, and every opportunity I had to choose my partner, I chose Greg. Not only did we work together, but through the years we had a number of guy trips and everyone enjoyed listening to Greg's stories. He was very well rounded, he loved his job, he loved all his partners, but most of all he loved Claire and his family. He was the happiest giant I have ever seen when he started dating Claire, nothing but smiles. When the girls started arriving, Greg was really in heaven. I remember him talking about taking the girls hunting, and I remember the soccer tournaments, because he had to boast about his girls. The arrival of his grandson brought on a new level of pride.

So Rest in Peace, my friend. You have lived a great life and left behind a lot of people who love you and will remember you forever.

Greg was a childhood friend, he and his family. We lived in the same neighborhood as youngsters. He and my oldest Brother Phillip remained friends until the day Greg died. I always loved him, like a Brother, although we never saw each other. He was the cutest big guy I knew! Go fly high Greg! You will be missed! Love Lu Ann

I lived in the same neighborhood with Greg, went to school with him 1st through 12th grade and then worked with him on Mobile PD. I only saw Greg a few times after he left the PD but his death has been very hard on me. I so miss the great childhood dreams with a good friend and gentle giant. Prayers for Debbie and your family. Gonna miss you man.

To me, in junior high and high school Greg was a gentle giant. we were lab partners in Mrs Dobey's biology class, Teammates for four years of football and a couple of track seasons. We hunted a time or two. I never heard a cross word from Greg, his graciousness was infectious, his humility real, his humanity was incomparable. I looked forward to seeing Greg at each reunion, he will be missed by all. Peace to his wife and children and to all who experienced his wit, humor and friendship.

This is a great personal loss for me and all of Greg's other partners at CSX Railroad Police. He was one of the best Special Agents we ever had and very few could manage a territory better than him. He was one heck of a good investigator and many criminals dreaded him pursuing them. We talked regularly and I'm going to miss my old friend and partner. My condolences to Claire and the girls.

Although Greg and I were assigned to different territories at CSX, I had the pleasure of working with him on special assignments. Not only was he a fine officer, but he was also one of the finest gentlemen I have met. My sincere sympathy to his love ones.
