“ She was always smiling and making others happy. Her sharp wit and off the cuff comments were funny. She loved her INCA family and we loved her. She was a genuinely and painfully honest person. I was stunned and deeply saddened from the news of her passing. I will miss her and will the INCA nation. God's speed on your new journey Michelle, I love you.

So sorry to hear of Michelle's passing. I can honestly say that no matter how many times she came through our surgery doors, she was always upbeat and had that glorious smile! Heaven has been gloriously blessed with this angel.

“Michelle was one of my closest friends. In high school and our close group did everything together. From watching our significant others at football practice after school, while sitting in the car gossiping, to going to prom, homecoming, and the senior class trip together. To laying out by the pool or laughing on the phone. Mostly I remember laughing a lot when I was with her. She was such a fun sweet person and I will miss her. I am so thankful I had the chance to meet her for girl time with a mutual high school friend for lunch in April. I am so thankful she became my friend.
