“ Our lives will be forever changed without Mr. Henry. His many rides down the driveway to our house would end up with his laughter and ours for hours. His and Ms. Caroles humor is contagious, we love them both dearly. My son never knew his Grandfather and his Grandmother, who was also friends with them, passed when he was real little. They have both been like Grandparents to him since he was born. When he got off the school bus Mr Henry would be out there waiting for him with and ice cold coke and bologna sandwich made just his way for him. Our CJ adores them both so much. We Thank You Henry for your smiles and laughter. We're going to miss hearing your grumbling about putting up Christmas lights, all done with a smile on your face. Our deepest condolences to the whole family he Loved you all! He was especially proud of Michael and all his achievements. We are truly heartbroken at the end of the dirt road as Henry would say.
