

James Larry Hood Sr.

March 21, 1950 - June 25, 2024

On June 25th, James Larry Hood Sr. passed away surrounded by his children at the age of 74. He was a loving and loyal friend and father.

Larry is survived by his children James Larry (Dana) Hood Jr., Lacie Madison, and Tyler (Vicki) Hood; grandchildren Josie Madison, Jackson Madison, Blakeli Hood, Hope Hood, Daniel Hood, and Arianna Hood. He was preceded in death by his parents James Hood and Clara Sartain.

Larry was born at home on March 21, 1950, in Oakman, Alabama. He graduated from Oakman High School and was an exceptional athlete, playing both football and basketball. He was the starting quarterback his sophomore, junior and senior years; he then attended college on a basketball scholarship.

He started working at Southern Railroad after college, and later, began a career in coal mining. There, he would retire as a mine superintendent after many years.

His favorite hobbies were playing golf with his sons, watching Alabama football, and being surrounded by his children and grandchildren. His best and most beloved friend was his dog, Kasey.

A graveside burial ceremony for Larry is scheduled for July 2nd, 2024, at Pine

Rest Cemetery for 1pm in Foley, Alabama.
