

Mr. James Ronald "Ron" Bloodworth Sr

October 8, 1947 - February 27, 2026

James Ronald "Ron" Bloodworth, Sr., age 78, of Lucedale, MS, passed away on Friday, February 27, 2026.

Ron was born October 8, 1947, in Macon, Georgia to Ralph Morgan Bloodworth, Jr. and Inez Rowe Bloodworth as the second oldest of 7 children. He grew up in Pensacola, Fl and graduated from Pensacola High School. After high school he moved to Montgomery, Al, where he met the love of his life, Faye, married her on December 15, 1966, and they quickly started a family and life together.

Ron worked in the grocery industry for over 50 years in every capacity from purchasing, distribution, stocking, and management. He worked his entire adult life to take care of his wife and their three children. They raised their family in Montgomery, Al, mostly, but later moved to Mobile, Al. Ron and Faye finally settled in Lucedale, MS, after their children were grown; and have been part of the Lucedale community for over 20 years.

Ron will be deeply missed by many, but none more than his wife of 59 years, Virginia LaFaye

“Faye” Bloodworth. They were each other’s whole world and lived to take care of one another. He was loved by their 3 children: James Ronald “Ronnie” Bloodworth, Jr.

(Samantha), Tereasa “Dawn” Merritt, and Richard “Bo” Morgan Bloodworth; his 8

grandchildren: Kayla Levins, David Rankin, Morgan Bloodworth, Camryn Bloodworth, Mary

August Bloodworth, Michael “Cain” Bloodworth, Meredith Bloodworth, and Catherine

Bloodworth; and 1 great-grandchild: Blakelee Fryfogle.

Ron is also survived by his brother, Ralph Bloodworth; sisters, DeMaris Edlin (Bobby),

Georgiana Noble (Virgil), DeNise Bloodworth, Sarah Webb (Tommy), stepsister, Heather

Reyes (Jason); stepbrother, Gary Morrison; and numerous nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents; his brother, Elijah "Pete" Morgan Bloodworth; and stepbrother, Christopher Morrison (Lisa).

Following a private cremation, the family will celebrate Ron’s life at a later announced date.

Arrangements, sympathy cards, meals, or other gifts of sentiment may be delivered to the family’s home in Lucedale.

“ Mr. Bloodworth (Boss) was a great influence on me and several friends who grew up with Ronnie. He always made you laugh and had a sarcastic personality that we all understood and loved. He loved his family and his work with Food World , he was a good man and he raised a great family. He will be missed.
