“ Mrs. Jane Criswell

“ Jane and I were neighbors and best friends for years when I was in university. On Saturdays we would go together with her kids to do her errands. She always drove around the shopping center parking lot hoping to find the spot nearest to the mall entrance. When I drove I was less particular and after I parked, she would turn to me and say in her North Carolina drawl « Ginny, is this the best you can do? ». Needless to say I meekly started the car and looked for a better parking spot. We called her Ma.
