“ He was a loving husband, we went fishing just about every day. We got up before daylight, went fishing got back in time for him to go to work. We disagreed on things concerning the weekends. He had a pet name for me, he called me duckbutter, he said I walk like a duck.. I was little and short. Some called us mutt and Jeff. We had lots of good times, and good memories.when we first got married we went to the drive in theater on Navy Blvd. My son and his nephew Billy spent many good times together. His two sisters and I were like three sisters. His baby brother was so sweet, he called my son pie boy , he would ask my son when he was two years old to jump up and down on his back to exercise his muscles. Jerry was a loving father to my son. He was the only father my son ever knew. We had a good life. I pray Jerry is in Heaven and I will see him again.. I Loved you Jerry. You told me when we divorced that I would get married long before you were got married, but look who out lasted who. Jerry wrote me a song, and I sent it off to be published, and told him he would have to send twenty five dollars, but he never sent the money, later on Buck Owens put it out as he had wrote it. When I got the CD of it it was on the other side of , Heart Of Glass ,put out by Buck Owens. The name of it is , Think Of Me. And it said, think of me when your lonely, think of me when your blue, think of me when your far away for Ill be thinking of you. He sent it to a poem publishing place and the put it in thick book of the Best Poems.he brought me a copy after our divorce.. it's still in there today.
