“ In the difficult days to come, may the memories of Ken give you comfort until the words of Isaiah 35:5,6 are fulfilled.

Eisbrenner family - January 01, 2016 at 10:57 AM

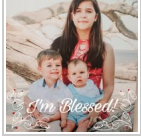

Thank you so much for the words of comfort. This is Ken ' s daughter. My mom is not sure who you are so could you please let us know. As can be expected she is under alot of stress. Thank you.

“ When I lived downstairs from uncle Ken, I collected chestnuts. I had bushels and wagons full- He said I had to stop filling the shed with all those nuts, And we used to close Grandpa's store on Friday nights-- he would teach me about stocks and bonds. Great guy. Love and peace to All you kids and aunt Bev

“ Pops was a great person to be around even though I've only knew him for only 13 years he has been a great inspiration. I love the times we would talk about appsoftly nothing of any importance. Even when I rattled on about nothing. He always seemed to listen. Whenever we had get togethers at Gary and Sharon aka(mom and dad in law) for Packer games or just cookouts. He would get mad if you didn't come right over and give him a hug. For however a short time I have known Ken he made me love him as he welcomed me as one of his own. I am thankful the time I did have to spent with him. I will think of you every time I eat crawl fish it will never be the same. To some this might seem silly. But this was a fun time for us. It was of many things we shared. He wasn't my blood but he was my gramps all the same. Love and miss already my friend.

“ My dad was the best man and father a girl could ever ask for. He was tough at times but only when I needed him to be. I will never forget all the wonderful summers up at our cottage in Wautoma Wis. He worked so hard to provide everything we needed. Dad, a piece of my heart is forever gone. You took it with you to Heaven. Until we meet again. I love you forever. Your loving daughter. Joy
