“ So many of my memories throughout life include Aunt Nell as a part of them. She was my mother’s youngest sister, and one my sisters and I enjoyed so much growing up. From her visit while my dad was stationed in Japan (before I was born, but my three sisters were there), to her visit while we were stationed in England, to the many visits during my childhood / teenage years and finally to her move here in 1995 after becoming widowed. She loved her flower beds, and we spent hours looking over the many flowers she had planted, enjoying visits, talks, lunches and shopping trips since she moved only a block from me. Finally, there was her marriage to Joe in 2004, with whom she enjoyed 19 years together, spending time traveling and at his home on the river prior to their move to Foley. As her health declined, Joe devoted himself to her care, and we will forever be grateful for his loving attention to her in her last years. Aunt Nell was known in our family for her dry sense of humor, speaking her mind, but most of all loving deeply. She is missed and will never be forgotten.
