“ Jackie was a sweet and caring soul. She did not miss a night calling my mom to talk about Hannity! She loved him! When the landline rang we would say mom it's Jackie. Mom just said I miss Jackie not calling...we all do! May God bless and be with her family. Rest assured she's singing heavenly bluegrass now. Love you Jackie! ❤️

“ She always had an open door policy no matter who you were she always welcomed you with love offering her hospitality. I will never forget the days she was like a mother to me when I was amongst her home hanging out with her daughter's through our teenage years of high school and then in years later just stopping by to say hello she always made herself available her Great Southern Hospitality and stories of her great music that she so greatly enjoyed.

And if she didn't feel like cooking we would go and have a meal together at Chick and Sea or somewhere else, usually Chick and Sea that was one of her favorite!! We will miss her greatly💕💕

Jackie was a wonderful woman! I have some wonderful memories of her, Carl, Angie & Koo Koo (Sandy) & Joy! When she & my nana got in the kitchen together, you had better get ready for some good eating! The best fried shrimp, gumbo & biscuits ever! I can imagine they are talking recipes in Heaven right now! Go rest high on that mountain my sweet Jackie! We sure loved you ❤️
