“ I met Lora when she joined the Foley Woman's Club. She jumped right into helping with anything she could. She always help to build our Christmas float and volunteered Danny to pull the float in the parade. Lora loved bacon and put Tony C. seasoning on everything. Her sweet and vibrant smile will be truly missed.

“ I will miss my sweet and sassy cousin, Lora. She fought a long, hard battle and now she has moved to her heavenly home 🙏🙏🙏. Although we have seen each other throughout the years we have gotten closer in the last few years. She loved her family dearly and she loved Jesus. She loved traveling and planning and I am grateful we were able to take a few trips together with her sister JoAnn. We had such a good time on an Alaskan and talked of going back one day. I will miss our visits and conversations but know we will meet again. Rest in peace sweet angel 😊😊😊

“ I met Lora when she married a cousin of mine. Although that didn't work we became and remained good friends and our children good friends also. I want never forget her. She was always there for me when I needed her. If just to tell about issues in my life that I needed to talk with someone about. Always told me straight forward on what she thought whether I agreed or not. She loved to hear me sing and always complimented me. We both at one time loved to dance also. We shared a lot of fun times, laughs. She will always be in my memory of a very good friend that I could share anything with. Going to miss her and love her until I pass from this world. Love to her family and friends.

“ Lora left us way too soon..we had a wonderful friendship that included being in Mardi Gras together, working together at Mobile Infirmary, camping with our families, going to craft shows and concerts, enjoying life. She was kind and loved her grandkids so much. She found the love of her life when she married Danny Daniels and they were a perfect couple. Her sickness was hard but Danny was always there helping, encouraging and giving her hope. Even in the end she was still making plans. She was smart, intelligent and God fearing. As the end of her life was approaching she wasn't scared to leave but was worried about her family. I realized early in our friendship she was a daddy's girl and her older sister Joann held a special place in her heart. Even though she was sick she never quit living or loving life. She was courageous and brave as she fought the battle to live. I admire her, love her like a sister and will miss her and all the adventures we had. Rest in Peace Lora ❤️

“ My dear, Lora! Was blessed to meet you as a client but became a friend. We messaged each other and prayed for her health. You are healed, now, but we are left with a broken heart. Love you and pray for your family, who you dearly loved! You are reunited with your loves with a healed body! We rejoice for you 🙏🙏🙏
