

Mrs. Loretta "Red" Millie Doyle

November 11, 1932 - February 21, 2019

Loretta Doyle was born November 11, 1932 in Silverhill Alabama. She was the daughter of Joseph and Millie Swoboda and sister to Joe and Louis Swoboda. After being raised in Silverhill for the younger part of her life, she moved to Pensacola Florida after graduating high school. While living in Pensacola she worked as a secretary at the San Carlos Hotel. While working she met Ted Doyle, a young marine from Texas who was in flight school at the navel air station. Ted and Loretta were married in 1953 and enjoyed more than 50 years together. They had one daughter, Dana. Loretta found joy in raising her daughter and being married. After retiring, Ted and Loretta opened a small store in Gulf Shores for a number of years. During this time Loretta gained a son in law, Terry Potter, whom she loved and considered the son she never had. Loretta led a very active and busy life. But nothing was more fulfilling than her grandchildren, Eric and Terri Lynn, her grandson in law Ben Gavin, and her great granddaughters Riley and Ava Grace. They were the loves of her life. Loretta passed on February 21, 2019 after 86 wonderful years. She will be loved forever and missed by many. She was a blessing to her family
