“ We shared a lot in life... a love for plants and flowers for one. I remember when she came up to Indiana and I dug her a dogwood sapling in the woods and several years later it bloomed red. That is such a rare thing for a wild dogwood tree to come out red. She always had a plant to give me to try and grow up north. And cooking. OMG Louise made the best gumbo on the planet. The girls and I remember those fish frys where daddy would fry the fish outside and Weezie in the kitchen cracking jokes, she was such a cut up. Fun times. She will be missed.
