November 27, 1928 - August 17, 2024

Ludeen McConnell Boyington, age 95, passed away at her home in Whitehouse Fork, AL on Saturday, August 17th, 2024. Ludeen will be fondly remembered for her deep love of her family, close friends and her dogs. At the grand age of 95, she was still fiercely independent, enjoyed growing beautiful flowers, sharing copies of old photos and recipes with family and friends, reminiscing about the old days, especially when her kids were little, shopping on QVC, and spending time sitting quietly in prayer to her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Ludeen was a beloved mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, great-great-grandmother and friend to many in the community. Her wisdom, wit and generosity will be dearly missed.

Ludeen was preceded in death by her husband of many years, Carnice F. Boyington (d.1994), second husband, the late Charles Skanes and daughter, Sheila Ann Boyington Buzbee. She is survived by her children, David A. Boyington (Cristy), Brenda Joyce Bryd (Claude), Randy K. Boyington (Rosalind), Wayne C. Boyington (Luverne), Deborah Mayo; one brother, Tim McConnell of Lillian and one sister, Ralphine Fleming of Bay Minette.

A private Celebration of Life service will be held for Ludeen at a later time. Memorial donations in memory of Ludeen can be made to the North Baldwin

Animal Shelter in Bay Minette.
