“ Major was a dear friend and neighbor. I will miss him so much. My dear friend will not be there to come and share is many stories of his and Judy’s lives of his life as a child growing up in Foley. I am not from Foley so his stories fascinated me. It is not every day you meet someone who went to school with people like Kenny Stabler and Fannie Flag. And someone who met his childhood sweetheart in high school and lived together for 62 years. These are the stories i listened to. How his father or grandfather worked at Tutwiler prison in Wetumpka and took the train to work. Which is the town I grew up in. Unfortunately I did not get to meet Judy but he loved her very much. I will miss our talks. But you are with your sweetheart now. RIP

“ Deb and I ran into Major on our walks with our Molly , and we enjoyed talking to Major about how the area has changed over the years. He enjoyed talking and sharing his life stories. Loved God and always ended our conversation with one day I'm going to join Judy in Heaven.

“ We became neighbors with Major shortly after Judy passed. He quickly became a great friend, helping us LA newbies become part of our new home. Sharing stories, and food, he was our best friend here, a very special man.
He will be sincerely missed by many. Thank you, Major.

“ Al and I were next door neighbors of Major and Judy. They immediately became our best friends. We could only stay in Alabama for 6 months as we were from Canada. We shared so many good times with them those memories
