

Mr. Marc Steven Whedbee

January 19, 1953 - September 25, 2025

Marc Steven Whedbee, born in Denver, CO on January 19, 1953, fell asleep in death on September 25, 2025. He lived a life dedicated to his family and faith, and he is dearly missed by his wife, Wendy, his sister, Mindy Rausch, his two children, Luke Whedbee and Annette Souza, their spouses, Danielle and Jason, and two grandchildren, Amari and Ethan, plus many relatives by marriage who proved to be a steady, loving presence throughout his married life. Raised in Denver by his parents, Bud Whedbee and Phyllis Yetter, he maintained an appreciation for the West. He enjoyed black and white westerns and old movies, and he loved cowboys, hats, and boots. Marc was timeless, wearing pocket watches, button-down shirts, and ties. His reputation with the community and congregation was that of a gentleman, with a mildness and humility rare in this world. Marc shared a sense of humor with his sister, Mindy, and he was known as a corny joke aficionado, always ready with a laugh. He was approachable, dependable, and he would appear when times were hardest, a steady support for the ones he loved. He passed his love for reading mysteries and sci-fi on to his daughter and taught his son how to bowl and cheer for the Broncos. He especially enjoyed watching old comedies with his son.

His goal upon graduating from North High School was to serve his God and follow Jesus' footsteps full-time. He worked many part-time jobs throughout his life, but he would always be known for the time he invested in his volunteer ministry. He loved people, and he wanted to share hope and good news with all he met.
He married Wendy Hughes on October 9, 1976. They were a living testament that opposites attract, but their shared faith and ministry created a bond that only strengthened with time. He showed constant devotion to his wife throughout their 49 years, but especially during her illness later in life.
A memorial for Marc will be held October 18, 2025 at 2:00 at the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's
Witnesses, 23465 E Chicago St Robertsdale, AL 36567.
