

Miss Margaret Lane Chaney

September 18, 1922 - February 18, 2025

Margaret Lane Chaney

Born on September 18, 1922, Margaret Chaney passed away on February 18, 2025 at the age of 102. Margaret has resided at Acts Westminster in Spanish Fort, AL since 2012. Prior to that, Margaret called Foley, Alabama and Birmingham home. For thirty-seven years Margaret helped run the Jefferson County Revenue Department in Birmingham. She retired early and moved closer to family members in Foley. For a short while she worked at the Gulf Shores Country Club.

Margaret's passions have included tennis, line dancing, fried shrimp, and deep dives into genealogy. She also loved her Cocker Spaniels Dixie and Sandy. She was an active member of the Presbyterian Church in Foley and had a deeply personal and private faith life. "Aunt" Margaret is remembered by her family for her unique ability to balance her quiet and introspective nature with a kind, fun loving side.

Margaret was preceded in death by her parents, William Chester Chaney and Ora Adele Scott Chaney, brother C.B. Chaney (Mildred Myra Herrin), and sisters Velvo Christine Chaney and Virginia Ruth Chaney Wilcox (Emmette) and nephew William Wilcox (Peggy). She is survived by nieces and nephews, Charles Buren Chaney, Jr. (Charlotte). Mary Alice Keene, Sarah Wilcox Waide

(Ben), Peggy Wilcox Miller (Bill) and numerous grand-nieces and nephews.

The funeral will be held at Pine Rest Cemetery in Foley on Sunday, February 23rd at 10:00am.
