“ Mrs. Rogers gave me the first job I ever had at the ripe old age of 14. She taught me how to do a job right, as she would have it no other way. She always treated me like one of her own children and I have great childhood memories with her and the girls. The last time I ever saw her was 15 years ago. She and Pam met me for lunch in Gulf Shores and we sat and talked about old times and my plans for the future. She was a great lady.
