Gilcrease Mary Jane Wallace

Born February 16, 1949 at Battles Wharf, Alabama died August 25 2019 in Foley, Alabama, after battling a serious illness for months. Jane is preceded in death by her mother Ruth Dorgan Wallace Mayberry and her father Irvin V. Wallace, her brother John Andrew "Andy" Wallace, her sister Ruth AnnWallace Ewing. She is survived by her four children, three daughters, Shelayne "Shanie" Ruth Gilcrease Quates, Mary Patrice"Patti" Gilcrease Skorpil, Heather-Starr Valynne Gilcrease McMicken , and one son Royce Ladner Gilcrease.

She is also survived by eleven grandchildren, Kyle, Robert, Adam, Richard, Jimmy, Rebecca, Sera, Austin, Arron, Alex, and Crystal. Thirteen great-grandchildren , Jade, Brandon, Connor, Audra, Caden, Emma, Jackson, Robin, Kylie, Christopher, Shelayce, Braylen, and Elena.

Jane lived her life between Alabama and Louisiana, while growing up. Jane married Glenn Richard Gilcrease, originally from Texas, in 1967 , they lived in Belle Chasse, Louisiana until their divorce 1978. Jane then move back to Alabama in 1979 with her three children. In 1989 Jane and her two youngest children moved to Kihei, Maui, Hawaii. Her brother Andy lived there and she decided, he made it sound wonderful, like a "Great Island Paradise". Then in 1992 she decided to move back to Alabama because she says, "She missed her family way too much". Jane retired from Quik Mart food store on Highway 98, in Foley Alabama , where she worked for Gary Linton, for almost 30 years. Jane loved being with her family, seeing and talking to her customers, and everyone will truly miss her. She is now with the angels and will be sorely missed here on Earth.
