

Mrs Mary Etta Moore

February 26, 1934 - September 2, 2023

Mrs. Mary Etta Moore a native of Covington County, AL and a resident of Fairhope, AL died on Saturday September 2, 2023 at a local health care facility. "Mary Etta" as she was known by her friends and family was a devoted Christian leader, conference speaker and Bible teacher. She wrote a series of guides for women on various Biblical themes and was in demand as a speaker at Women's Conferences across the United States. Early in her life she ministered to juvenile delinquents in Mobile County and later to women at the Home of Grace. In the 1980's and 1990's the late Rev. Fred Wolfe brought her into Cottage Hill Baptist Church to begin a counseling ministry until she began her private counseling practice in the greater Mobile, Alabama area. She was in demand as a Christian Counselor because of her ability to apply Biblical principles to everyday life and her obvious compassion for her clients. During all these periods of her life she developed a reputation as a renown Bible teacher and she taught the Bible into her eighties. She inspired many of those she taught to study the Bible because her personal enthusiasm to have a deeper understanding of God's word. Mrs. Moore came from a long line of Baptist ministers and authored a novel, BROOKWOOD'S STORY in 2003 (unpublished) which portrayed the challenges of a minister in the fictional South Alabama town of Brookwood at the turn of the twentieth century.

Mrs. Moore was preceded in death by her husband James F. Moore, parents, Dozier Carlisle, and Grace Eiland Carlisle, brothers Hubert and O.C. Carlisle, sisters Mildred Carlisle and Margie Frier. She is survived by her son, Richard W. Moore (Dr. Elizabethann Mitchell Moore), granddaughter Michaelan Moore Mena (Dustin Mena), great grandson Pierce Gabriel Mena, brother Dr. Waylon Carlisle (Jean Carlisle), sisters Glenda Carlisle Roundtree (Julius Roundtree), Sharon Toney (Clifford Toney) and several nieces and nephews. Funeral services will be held from the graveside on Wednesday September 6, 2023 at 10AM. Interment will be in Pine Rest Memorial Park.
