“ He didn't have to do anything. It just made me feel good and better, knowing that he and his shining, warm light was in the world.

I always have memories of how I held him, in what seems like, was his first week of life.

I always remember loving his enthusiasm, light, big smile, and how fun it was to sit on the couch and read books to him almost from the beginning.

So funny and so smart he was, from the very beginning, already outsmarting and playing pranks on his aunts/babysitters (Kim Fields Smitherman and me :) )

He was full of empathy, compassion, love, and light and I feel privileged to have had him in my life. I only wish that I could've been there for him on a regular basis.

“ *My condolences to the families.
"May tender memories soften your grief,
May fond recollection bring you relief,
And may you find comfort and peace in the thought
Of the joy that knowing your loved one brought...
For time and space can never divide
Or keep your loved one from your side.
When memory paints in colors true,
the happy hours that belonged to you."
