“ Oscar,
You were my mommas HAPPY she was seeking! Thank you for loving her and being there through all of her days. I know now that you were fulfilling your promise to her by being by her side when she left us as well. It brings my heart and soul peace knowing that you are together again. To Oscars children and family...my heart goes to you all in this time. Love and blessings.

“ Some of my best memories as a child were spent with you and your family going to Church on Sundays and just remembering how much of a hard worker you were and how much you loved your family. I always looked forward to seeing you on Sundays in Walmart. I will miss your infectious smile and your big hugs. I love you uncle Oscar and will greatly miss you. ”

Carol, Donna was a great confondont and companion to dad. They were the happiest when they were together and now they will have their "happily ever after". Thank you and your family for taking dad into your hearts and helping him when he needed help the most. I love and miss Donna too. She was a beautiful person 😊

Happy Birthday daddy! I think about you every day. I wish I could do things over. I know I can do a better job taking care of you. I love you more every day and appreciate the words of encouragement that you always gave me to keep me focused on the important things. I listen to your voicemails and cherish hearing your voice. I miss you so much.
