

Mrs. Patricia Charline Shinault

March 8, 1956 - September 30, 2025

Patricia Charline Shinault, of Mobile, AL, peacefully passed away on September 30, 2025, at the age of 69. Charline was born in Shreveport, LA to Bettie and Charles Shinault and named for her mother's life long friend Patricia Sharpless. She graduated in 1974 from Spring High School in Spring, TX.

Charline is survived by her sisters, Alison Diane Inscore and Betsy Oliver (Steve), nieces Aimee Inscore Baron and Alison Inscore, nephews Ben Riddle (Lesley) and August Oliver (Meagan), great nieces Ashlin Baron, Karleigh Riddle, Khloey Riddle, Kaycie Riddle and Kellsea Riddle, great nephews Elliott Oliver, Rory Oliver and Rhys Oliver, aunt Camille Warren, devoted family friend Sandee Yessick and many cousins and friends, all of whom she loved very much. Our family would also like to thank Bridgette Luper and her team, who treated Charline like a family member with their care and respect towards the end.

Charline is predeceased by her parents, Bettie Norris Shinault and Charles Lucien Shinault, grandparents Leon and Thelma Norris and Charles and Gwendolyn Shinault and her brother-in-law, David Inscore.

As a child, Charline was sweet, fun loving and playful. Despite any difficulties, she grew into a woman who was a kind and gentle soul with a special place in her heart for animals. She was very resourceful, even deciding to sew a new outfit by hand since there was no sewing machine. And it was beautiful. She was also fascinated by the Russian language and taught herself quite a few words and phrases. Charline was very independent and also talented at sewing, drawing, embroidery and various crafts.

Memorial Service for Charline will be held Wednesday, October 15, 2025 at 10:30 AM at the Loxley Presbyterian Church 62 N Cypress St. Loxley, AL 36551.
