

Rebecca Holly Montgomery

June 14, 1976 - September 29, 2024

Rebecca Holly Montgomery was born in Anniston, Alabama on June 14, 1976. As a young girl, she lived in Fairhope and later in Foley, Alabama. In Foley she was a Girl Scout and with her family attended Foley First Baptist Church where she was baptized at the age of 11. As a teen, Holly excelled in art and in music and was a member of her high school band. She left home at age 17 and journeyed to north Alabama where she attended Scottsboro High School. She had a fondness for Scottsboro and would return to that special place to live several times over the course of her life.

After high school, Holly enrolled in Snead State College in Boaz, Alabama and graduated in 1998. She moved to Athens where she attended Athens State College. Holly worked for a number of years in Birmingham and Pensacola in the fields of insurance and banking.

Holly liked people and could easily make friends. Many of her best friends from Scottsboro she had known since high school, and she stayed close to them throughout her life.

Holly was an organ donor and after her passing, a number of her organs and tissues have been gifted to recipients, a reflection of her generosity in helping others.

Holly is survived by her parents, Brenda and Henry Spivey, and Ivan and Jack Whatley, her siblings Victoria Boykin (John), Stephanie Rynes (Joe), Justin Roberts (Connie), five nieces and four nephews. Holly was preceded in death by her brother Ian Roberts.

“ Holly holds a very special place in our hearts. She was like a second mother to our son Ethan when he was in elementary school, and I am so thankful that she came out to Dallas to visit us in 2021. One of my favorite stories was when I got a call from Ethan’s 3rd grade teacher asking if I had done Ethan’s homework for him. I said no, but that I would check with Holly. Sure enough, Holly completed it for him because he was so tired that he fell asleep and she didn’t want to wake him.

I really can’t say enough good things about Holly - she was a true friend and confidant and my heart is so heavy and sad. We love you, Holly. ❤️❤️
