“ To say you'll be miss would be an understatement. You were so awesome and talented and loved by anyone that knew you! Summers were my favorite growing up knowing you, Aunt Dawn, and Little Ricky were coming to Missouri for a visit! One of my favorite memories I have is one summer during our big family camping trips when I was maybe 8 or 9 I managed to get into poison ivy...I can remember you told me to put mud on it...it took some convincing as I was certain you were just trying to get me to cover myself with mud and look a little mud monster! That always makes me laugh to think of and also taught me a great life lesson! Until we meet again for laughs and lessons you'll be loved and missed.
