If there was one word to described Mrs. Ruby, it would be "Devoted". She was a devoted mother and grandmother. She was, more than anything, devoted to her Lord and Savior. Every morning, you could call her or stop by, and she was reading the bible. She loved going to church and she didn't mind at all to witness to anyone about who her Savior was. Mrs. Ruby also enjoyed cooking, reading her bible, working in her yard, when she was able, going to church, and spending time with her family.

She will be deeply missed.
