“ My condolences to the family. I have known Russell and Shelby for over 60 years. They were an awesome couple. They loved each other so much. Russell was a great care giver for Shelby when she was ill. I will never forget them and miss them greatly.

“ Dear Richie and Eddie,

Please accept my sincerest condolences on the loss of your dad. Russ was a colorful character and we visited often across the fence, sharing stories and opinions. He was a good man and I've missed him since he went to Alabama. He was very intent on going to Heaven and being good, so that he could join your mom up there. God rest his soul and bless both of you and your families! Mrs. St. Myer Next Door
