

Ruth Hardwick Perry

March 17, 1924 - March 14, 2017

Ruth Hardwick Perry was born on March 17, 1924 to the late Woodfin and Rosa Parker Hardwick in Morgan County Alabama. She was married to the late J.B. Ben Perry.

She is preceded in death by her two brothers; Jasper Evans Hardwick, Wiley Hardwick, and two sisters; Mary Hardwick Kerr Hurlburt, Alice Hardwick Gregg,

She is survived by two sisters; Bettie Hardwick Bramlett Morris and Helen Hardwick Allen, and a score of nieces and nephews as well as her beloved friend and neighbor Sharon Brindle.

She graduated from Falkville High School and from Montevallo University. Ruth worked as a lab technician at West End Hospital until she and J.B. retired to Foley, Alabama in 1977. She attended Mckendree Methodist Church in her youth and was a member of Saint Andrews by the Sea Church in Gulf Shores. Ruth enjoyed her retirement years in Foley where she fished and gardened in a climate she loved. Ruth was helpful and giving to her family and neighbors as well as being generous to charities. The Heart of Christ Ministry of Honduras has honored her for helping find a secure home and school for abused children and she funded scholarships at both Montevallo University and the University of Alabama.
