“ I love you so much Samara I remember the first day we hung out you came an picked me up from the barbershop an we went to the beach it was so cold outside but you didn't care you got right in your bathing suit an started swimming then you started making fun of me because I put one foot in the water an jumped right back out an started complaining about how cold it was she said "quit whining like a baby" I guess you could say that was the day I feel so deeply inlove with you. You were my best friend an the best thing that has ever happened to me anytime I saw you smile it made my whole day I loved making you laugh!! I know heaven gained the most beautiful an sweet precious soul!! Im so glad your last words to me was "I love you"

“ I had the privilege of meeting Samara last spring while working at Vacasa. We immediately bonded. She had such a bright light and beautiful smile. She was encouraging, uplifting and loving anytime I seen her. She had an amazing soul. I'll miss this sweet girl.

“ The week before you passed away we went to the park and played football and laughed together then we went to the skatepark and sat on the ramps and shared memories about the skatepark it was so much fun I miss you so much already. Then we went to the playground and carved our Initials in to the wood where everyone else did.

I feel like you were my big sister. Love you, Matthew

“ Your smile and laughter brightened a room each time you entered it. You were just like my grand daughter. I know your wings were ready for you to go to heaven, but my heart was not ready to let you go. Heaven has gained a beautiful angel. We have lost a family member. I love you baby.
