

Mr. Samuel Luke Tyson

December 13, 1985 - May 31, 2026

Luke Tyson, 40, entered the presence of his Savior on May 31, 2026.

Born on December 13, 1985, Luke lived a life defined by his faith in Jesus Christ, his love for his family, and his passion for leading others in worship. He was a devoted husband, father, son, friend, and worship pastor whose greatest desire was to point people to Jesus in both word and action.

On the morning of May 31, Luke was doing what he loved and was called to do, leading worship. Following a sudden medical emergency, he was taken to the emergency room, where despite extensive efforts to save him, he passed away surrounded by the prayers and love of his family and church family.

Luke leaves behind a legacy of worship, discipleship, kindness, and a steadfast faith that inspired others to draw closer to Christ. His faith was not something he reserved for Sunday mornings. It shaped every part of his life. He loved people well, encouraged others freely, and never missed an opportunity to share the hope he had in Jesus Christ. Through worship ministry, friendship, and everyday conversations, he touched countless lives. The stories shared since his passing have been a testament to the impact, he made on so many people. Many have spoken of how Luke's faith, kindness, and obedience to God's calling changed the course of their lives.

Luke shared a beautiful love story with his wife, Mallory. They met as teenagers at church in Mobile, Alabama, and built a life together centered on faith, family, and service. Just one month before his passing, they celebrated 16 years of marriage. Through every season of life, Luke was a loving partner, and a constant reminder of God's love.

Luke loved being a father. He was incredibly proud of his children, Jaidyn and JD, and cherished every moment spent with them. Luke's love for his children was evident to everyone who knew him.

He is preceded in death by his grandparents and father, Johnny Lee Tyson.

He is survived by his beloved wife, Mallory Tyson; his children Jaidyn and JD; his mother, Darlene Williams; his sisters, Janna (Blake) Stanley, Katie (Nathan) Salers and Karlie (Ryan) Cunill; nieces and nephews and many other family members, friends, and brothers and sisters in Christ who were blessed to know and love him.

While his family grieves the tremendous loss of a husband, father, son, and friend, they rejoice in the assurance that Luke is now with the Lord he faithfully served throughout his life.

Luke's legacy lives on through countless people he encouraged, the lives he helped lead to Christ, the worship he offered so faithfully, and the family he loved with all his heart.

"Well done, good and faithful servant."--Matthew 25:23
