“ Sending infinite love & hugs to the family & friends of Shannon " Chica bonita" "Chica guapa" She loved it when I called her. She would repeat back. She and I shared a work space as RNs in Pensacola, FL. She vibrated so much peace & kindness. Spanish is my first Language. She wanted to learn. I would always call her " Beautiful girl " in Spanish and she would repeat back. So blessed to have shared the same space with her during my journey on planet Earth, unknown to me she would be first to depart. Rest in Love Shannon.

“ I am honored to have worked with Shannon and become close friends in 2018 and on. We laughed together often and shared heartfelt nursing experiences. She is precious and full of love and sunshine! We always picked right back up where we left off, if more time than we realized had passed since we last chatted. We loved sharing conversation over a good meal, whether we made it ourselves at one of our places or out to eat somewhere delish!! And we always had dessert! She loves her cake!! She allowed me to go to chemo treatments when she was first diagnosed just to know she wasn't alone. I will always love her and miss her deeply, even though our time together was short. Rest now and have peace, Sweet Shannon, in the Lord's loving arms❤️
