Shannon "Tiny" Price

12/5/1969 - 05/09/2025

Shannon was a loving husband , father , papaw , brother, and son.

To know him was to love him. His heart was larger than life and he was always happy to help anyone .

He was well loved and respected in both his community and work life .

Shannon truly loved riding his motorcycles with his American legion brothers and fishing with his wife , children and friends. He enjoyed his work and was proud of the fact that he had worked for MMC for almost 20 years as a mixer truck driver and trainer . He took great pride in doing any task to the best of his ability . Shannon's heart and love of life out shone his impressive size. He truly was a gentle giant taken too soon.

He leaves behind a loving wife Libby Ledford daughters Joan Price and Heather Price . Sons Walker Price and Larry Price . Sister Tracie Singletary (kevin) and a loving mother Lois Price . 8 grandkids and 2 great grandkids and just too many important people to name. He will be greatly missed by everyone who knew him.

“ So many memories I could share about Shannon... The best one was Dec 2024 where him Libby heather Joan Memaw Barbara Braxton Jaymin Zayden Ryleigh And Charlie were all together for Christmas, in style the barn with him in his overalls and his big ole hat. The laughs we all shared the memories that were made. And most importantly I'll forever cherish the years we shared together and our children Heather Larry and Walker... May be Gone but NEVER Forgotten.. Rest Easy Big Shannon ❤️

“ Remember when I found out Hardaddy had shirts in Shannon's size Libby? I was so excited to send him the Flamingo shirt. He got the shirt and said even though it had a lot of pink Flamingos on it he would wear it for you. He said he knows how much you love them. I wish I could find that conversation because he mentioned loving you so much that he the big hearted man he was would wear the shirt for you. I think he really liked it too.
