“ I have started and stopped so many times as I tried to write just what Wannah meant to me and my family. Words can't express how much we loved her. She was always such an encouragement to me and my family as I worked with the Gulf Shores Church. She was giving and kind and would do anything she could to help. There were several visits and lunches together where she would turn my spirit from one of frustration and aggravation into one of joy and laughter as she would talk and tell stories of her own life. She was full of laughter, love, and kindness. She was a wonderful Godly woman that I will miss getting to visit and talk with, especially in those times I need a lift, but what fun it's going to be to reunite in Heaven some day. We love you Wannah!

God's blessings and comfort on all of you Lesley and Shannon and all you love.

Wannah had a gift of making you feel loved and special. I enjoyed every time I was fortunate enough to sit and laugh with her. She was giving and loving and had a heart full of love for God's work who've she enjoyed to the last moment here. I was new to Wannah and yet she welcomed me with open arms. It was very difficult to know she couldn't stay longer to bless all of us. What a beautiful Christian example she leaves all of us. God's plans are wiser than ours. He knows us from beginning to end and in all eternity. She was faithful and loving to the end. I know she is praying for all of us. Love to her sweet daughters.

What a blessing

She was to all ❤️🙏🏻🤔🙏🏻🙏🏻❤️

“ I was just talking to my son-in-law, Luke Reynolds, Saturday about our sweet friend, Wannah. We were just sharing fond memories and agreeing on how much we all miss her....
What a beautiful soul she shared with this world! Our family loves her, eternally, and she will definitely be missed!
Until Heaven❤️
