“ Audrey, Nadine and Bradley,

There aren't enough words in my limited vocabulary to convey how much I appreciated your Dad. He was fun as well as funny and never failed to bring a bright spot into my day.

He was always a great friend, supportive and kind when others were not. The last time I spoke to him, was after your Mom had passed and he was still in his home. He had called me with a problem about real estate. At some point during our conversation he said that he wished I was there. I remember thinking at the time how sweet it was for him to even think of me.

May he rest in peace.

He is already missed.
