“ He was my Brother-in-law for as long as I can remember. I will always remember him laughing and joking because that's how he always was when ever I got a chance to see him. I literally have a life time of memories. I remember visiting in Slidell and the seafood we ate every Friday. Then it's on to Alabama (a few different places); our get away. It was fun though.

Well, I choose to remember only the good things. I love you Bill. I pray you will RIP and I pray for Ricky and the rest of the family.
