

Mr. William Delano Underwood

December 6, 1933 - June 20, 2025

William Delano Underwood, Sr.

December 6, 1933 – June 20, 2025

William Delano Underwood Sr., a beloved husband, father, grandfather, and proud Navy veteran, passed away peacefully at home on June 20, 2025, surrounded by his loving family. He was 91 years old.

Born on December 6, 1933, in Summerdale, Alabama, William was a lifelong resident of Foley, Alabama, where he built a life rooted in family, his beloved pecan orchard, and a love for cultivating citrus and palm trees. He served honorably in the United States Navy during the Korean War, a chapter of his life he carried with great pride and a service that we all deeply respect. His role as a Navy veteran was a significant part of his life and will always be remembered.

William is survived by his devoted wife, Hilda Louise Underwood; his daughters, Angela (Joey) Lambeth and Beverly (Raymond) Fitzsimmons; his cherished grandchildren, Russell, Lenora, Mariah, Kristen, Ryan, and Delaney; and twelve beloved great-grandchildren. He also leaves behind many nieces and nephews who were dear to him.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Louis and Wilma Underwood; his children, William Delano Underwood Jr. and Felicia Ann Underwood; and his brothers, Vaughn, Gene, and Jimmy Underwood.

William will be remembered for his quiet strength, his enduring love for his family, a love that transcends time and space, and his commitment to his country. His love for his family was a warm and unifying force, and his legacy lives on in the hearts of those who knew and loved him.

“ We met Mr. Underwood by chance. We stopped to ask a question about palm trees. We found a teacher and a lifelong friend. He taught us so many wonderful things about plants. He was kind and considerate. He will certainly be missed, until we meet again dear friend.
